

About the Center for Financial Training Atlantic & Central States (CFTACS)

The Center for Financial Training Atlantic & Central States is part of the national Center for Financial Training (CFT) network of not-for-profit financial services education organizations throughout the country. Established in the early 1900s, CFT continues to provide banking and finance employees with a college-level curriculum in all areas of financial services, including accounting, economics, credit, lending, supervision/ management and business administration.

Headquartered in Norwich, Conn., CFT offers a wide curriculum of live, guided self-study, online and self-paced courses including 19 three-credit courses approved for college credit by the American Council on Education (ACE). Information about CFT can be obtained by visiting: <http://www.cftacs.org> or by calling 1-800-795-5242.