Official Leave of Absence (LOA)

Many adult students find themselves in life situations (i.e., increased workload, family crisis, limited financial resources, etc.) where they need to take an extended period of time off from their studies. By completing this official Leave of Absence Form, you are indicating that you will be taking a maximum of a one year leave of absence from your enrollment at Thomas Edison State College. Please fill out the information below and return it to the Office of the Bursar with your $55 processing fee. If you are paying by check, please make checks payable to Thomas Edison State College. This process will hold your status as a student for a maximum of one full year. To make good use of a leave of absence, it should only be taken at the end of your current enrollment period.

During your leave of absence, you are not entitled to enrolled student services such as transcript evaluation and program planning. If you choose to earn credits through Thomas Edison State College courses, Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) and TECEP® examinations, you will be charged nonenrolled fees.

Academic Status

The LOA guarantees that your program of study toward your degree will not change. You will be allowed to return to your studies without any academic penalty or change of degree requirements. However, if you re-enroll in a different degree program upon your return, you will be required to complete the degree requirements in effect at the time of re-enrollment.

Admissions Status

When you return to the College after an official leave of absence, you do not have to resubmit an application for admission. The LOA will allow you to return as a continuing student.

Financial Status

When you return to the College, you will be required to re-enroll as a continuing student by paying the annual enrollment tuition or the comprehensive tuition for subsequent years. You do not have to pay as a newly enrolled student.

What must I do to return to the College?
