

THOMAS EDISON STATE COLLEGE

Career Center

The Career Center is a one-stop shop for your career and employment needs. We encourage you to take full advantage of the wealth of career development and employment resources that are designed to address your career and employment-related needs. Whether you're looking for a new job, articles on career development, networking resources, or whether you are looking to change your career, we've provided you with the following quick references of useful links that will connect you to career-related and employment sites on the internet.

Please feel free to check with your local university/college Career Services. Often times they have resume, mock interview, job fairs, and career counseling for the community. Also your local newspapers usually have websites with searchable job listings.

The College does not guarantee the continued existence of these links and does not take responsibility for the content of these sites.

Career-Related Links

- LinkedIn www.linkedin.com
A networking tool used by professionals worldwide to find and reach the new business contacts you need to accelerate your career research and network through referrals from members; know more than a name--view rich professional profiles and let other members know what you have to offer to them and their contacts. Our "Thomas Edison State College Group" is a great way to connect with alumni in the same industry and geographic location.
- The Wall Street Journal Executive Career Site www.careerjournal.com
